EQUAL CREDIT OPPORTUNITY ACT (ECOA)

The Federal Equal Opportunity Act prohibits creditors from discrimination against credit applicants on the basis of race, color, religion, national origin, sex, marital status and age, (provided that the applicant has the capacity to enter a binding contract); or because all or part of the applicant's income is derived from any public assistance program; or because the applicant has in good faith exercised any right under the Consumer Protection Act.

The Federal Agency that administers compliance with the Law concerning this creditor is the Office of Consumer Affairs, Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation, Washington, D.C. 20429-9990.

Income received from Alimony, Child Support or Separate Maintenance need not be revealed unless you choose such sources be considered as a basis for repaying this obligation. Income from these sources, or any other source, including part time or temporary employment, will not be discounted by the lender because of your sex or marital status. However, the lender will consider carefully the stability of all income you disclose.
